

WE ARE LIKE A TREE.
LIKE AN OAK TREE.
WE HAVE STURDY ROOTS
FASTENED FIRMLY TO THE
GROUND AND STRONG
BRANCHES REACHING UP TOWARDS THE SKY.

THIS IS WHO WE ARE.
THIS IS STARK S.P.A.

Our company profile begins with these simple words. It is a book that encapsulates our essence, our being. It is a means that has helped us along our journey of recent months, and has led us now to present ourselves with a refreshed image and communication style.

As we celebrate our 60th anniversary, we have chosen to look inwards, in search of those traits and values that have guided us through our history, making us what we are now: a world leader in metal cutting and one of the biggest manufacturers of woodworking tools.

An achievement we have worked for together, as a team.
An achievement that makes us proud and gives us the strength and energy to continue our journey with the same enthusiasm and passion, excited and eager to see where the future will take us.

Because this is who we are at Stark: a company tied to history but with our gaze firmly on the future.
